Your booth at PSE 2018 – Your business success

Every two years, scientists and representatives of industry meet at the beautiful Garmisch-Partenkirchen to exchange knowledge as well as experiences in various fields of Plasma Surface Engineering. At PSE 2018 more than 750 participants are expected – coming from Europe, Asia, America and Australia – to participate on a range of highly interesting lectures. This event is a great opportunity for exhibitors for networking, presentation and communication.
